

A brighter future for young people in Bromley

Our volunteers and paid staff enable young people to develop their self esteem, help them avoid involvement in anti-social behaviour and crime, foster and develop new skills and talents, and have lots of fun in the process!

Now we've grown, we need someone to recruit, develop, support and retain our volunteers; they're vital to our charity. This is where you come in.....

If you think you have what it takes to manage the volunteering programme for adults at JusB then give us a call.
